

A Note from your Director

Dear Seniors,

I'd like to thank each and everyone of you for being so patient with me these past few months.

As of Jan. 5th the Probate Court consolidated with Groton. I have a few financial responsibilities to complete in the court, then I shall be able to devote my entire attention on the center.

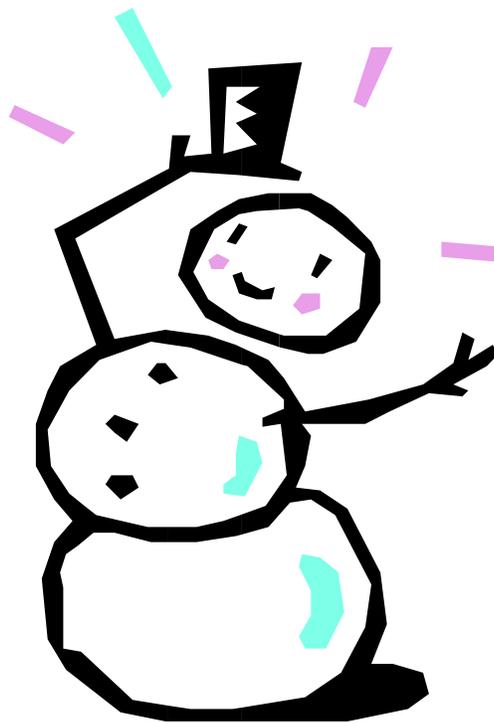

Hopefully, I shall be able to start a couple of new activities in a few weeks.

Please let me know if you are interested in line dancing and Wii bowling and dancing. I am currently looking for a volunteer to run the craft class. If you are interested please give me a call.

Volunteers are also needed once a month for 1 1/2 hours to work on projects with the children from Polly Wogs Day Care.

This year I would also like to recruit new members. Please talk to your friends and invite them to the center.

Let it Snow?

Christmas Thank You

Dear Seniors,

I have to admit I was taken aback at the Golden Agers Christmas party. Your generous gift to me was totally unexpected. I truly appreciate your thoughtfulness.

Cathy N. told me I had to spend the money on myself. So I did! I bought two new sweaters, a shirt and socks.

Kisses and Hugs! Teresa

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

“To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here.”

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.
